CHILDREN EXPRESSING THEMSELVES ABOUT DIVORCE

Directions:

1. Print this page out from your computer.
2. Cut out the postcard below.
Hint: If you want to make the postcard stronger, tape it or glue it to a piece of card board and cut it out again.
3. Express yourself on the other side.
4. Attach a stamp and mail it in!

IMPORTANT: This project is 100% private and confidential. By sending in a postcard, you are giving me permission to use it in the Postcard from Splitsville Project. Please understand that your postcard may be posted on the internet, or printed in a newspaper or book, so don't use full names or reveal anything that could reveal you or your parents identity. For example using a full name or occupation and town like: "My mom is the mayor of MyTown, Utah..."
